The Central Coast Commission for Senior Citizens is a non-profit private corporation incorporated in 1975 and designated by the California Department of Aging as an Area Agency on Aging for Planning and Service Area 17 (including Santa Barbara and San Luis Obispo Counties). The Commission is governed by a Board of Directors 75% of whom are 60 years of age or older.

The objective of the Agency is to develop a comprehensive and coordinated system for older persons. As prescribed by the Older Americans and Older Californians Acts, activities of the Area Agency include:

- Making policy decisions in carrying out the functions of planning, pooling, and coordinating the mandates of the Older Americans Act.
- Assessment of needs and services that benefit senior citizens.
- Coordination of existing programs, services that serve older persons.
- Development of resources and funds to expand service delivery system.

The Board meets on the fourth Friday of each month at 9:00 a.m., except during the months of November and December. The majority of meetings are held in Santa Maria; car-pooling is available and members driving are reimbursed for their mileage. There may also be other committee meetings or telephone conference calls during the month. Additional information may be obtained by calling the Area Agency on Aging at (805) 925-9554.

Terms for Directors are 2 years and until successors are appointed. Directors may serve 4 terms. Pursuant to the Bylaws of the Area Agency on Aging, the City Council submits a nomination to the Board of Directors for the Commission's approval. Appointees may not hold any full-time paid office or employment in City government.

An Advisory Council, composed of 30 members, advises the Board of Directors on all matters relating to the planning and administration of the Area Plan and acts as an advocate for older persons. The Council develops an Area Plan to guide the operations of the Area Agency on Aging. At least 51% of the council is composed of older persons.

The Westside Community Center (WCC) was opened by the City in 1980-81 in response to the need for a community service facility and neighborhood center for the Westside and West Downtown areas. The Westside Center Advisory Committee was formed in 1979 by Resolution No. 79-093 to advise the City Council on the administration, use and policies of the WCC and to insure that the WCC is utilized in the best possible manner to serve the surrounding community.

The Committee meets on the second Thursday of every month at 7:00 p.m. at the WCC, 423 West Victoria Street. Additional information may be obtained by calling the Parks and Recreation Department at 963-7567.

Terms for members are 4 years and until successors are appointed. The City Council interviews and appoints 7 members to the Committee; 4 members are required to be residents or employees of the Westside Neighborhood (Census Tracts 9, 10, 11.01 or 11.02) and 3 members represent the public at large. Appointees may not hold any full-time paid office or employment in City government.

Applications and appointment information may be obtained by accessing the City's web site at www.SantaBarbaraCa.gov, or from the City Clerk's Office in City Hall at 735 Anacapa Street, 564-5309.
